ICOLD: in Vietnam, for Sustainable Development

For the first time in the history of ICOLD, the 19th Annual Meeting of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICOLD), was held in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, one of the most rapid economic growthers of ICOLD, topped the results of the National Competition, in Hanoi, from May 25th to May 30th.

Over 500 delegates, including 100 representatives of governmental organizations, including 40% of the 50 first-time attendees, attended the 19th Annual Meeting, a landmark achievement in dam development, an indicator from the President of ICOLD, and the President of the National Competition, in Hanoi, from May 25th to May 30th.

Whether dam building goes with sustainable development is one of the main agenda items to be presented during the 19th Annual Meeting, organized by the National Competition, in Hanoi, from May 25th to May 30th. The participants are a mix of experts with more than 400 papers being presented to their partners in ICOLD, from around the world, and ICOLD is the journal of the Meeting.
